

Lippes Mathias Wexler Friedman LLP's Melanie A. Mucario Presents to Apartment Association of Greater Orlando

February 14, 2019 | PRESS RELEASES

PONTE VEDRA BEACH, FL – Melanie A. Mucario, of counsel at Lippes Mathias Wexler Friedman LLP, is presenting to the Apartment Association of Greater Orlando on “Common Landlord/Tenant Litigation Scenarios” on February 15. She will share some of the common litigations facing the industry and discuss how to navigate landlord and tenant law.

AAGO is an association of apartment communities, apartment owners, managers, developers, suppliers, and professionals dedicated to promoting and advancing the needs of the apartment industry.

At Lippes Mathias, Ms. Mucario focuses her practice on residential and commercial property management litigation. Her practice also includes lease drafting, Fair Housing compliance issues, property management best practices, security disputes, evictions and unlawful detainer actions.